

Subject: Official Statement from ffreedom app regarding Recent Legal Developments

We at ffreedom app would like to update you on the recent legal developments concerning our CEO's indictment. We strongly believe that the allegations against our CEO are baseless and frivolous, initiated by a group of disgruntled employees who were terminated/resigned due to non-performance. All terminations were done as per our corporate policies and in full compliance with the employment agreement signed by these employees. We remain confident in the judicial system to fairly and justly resolve this matter.

We assure all our stakeholders that ffreedom app maintains the highest standards of ethics, transparency, and corporate governance, which is reflected through the trust & testimonials of our customers, who continue to use ffreedom app on a regular basis to improve their lives.

As highlighted by this heartening story on the positive impact of ffreedom app, one of our users, a 20-year-old boy hailing from Ongole, Andhra Pradesh, faced challenges in completing his basic education, but had a strong aspiration to run a successful business. Through the courses taught on the ffreedom app, he was able to establish a thriving country chicken farming business, now generating an impressive annual profit of approximately INR 20 lakhs. This story serves as a testament to the transformative power of ffreedom app in helping individuals achieve their dreams and secure a better future.

Over the years, under the guidance of our CEO, ffreedom app has helped more than 1 crore individuals not just to learn new skills through our courses taught by successful mentors, but also to apply these skills in their lives to help them earn a livelihood. Be it a woman in Karnataka who became an oil mill agriprenuer, or a farmer in Uttar Pradesh who learned how to grow fish along with mangoes, these success stories motivate us to continue building freedom app and help people get access to knowledge and opportunities to change their lives for better. We are proud of the positive impact we have made on countless lives over the years.

Through this statement we want to assure our customers, mentors and society that we will continue to work towards our vision of empowering every individual to earn a livelihood, while building a great institution for our employees, investors and partners.

Sincerely,

Management Team
